Presenter: Karen Trussell

Topic: Budget 101

Karen is the Chief Financial Officer for the Department of Justice. She began her state career 31 years ago as a receptionist. In 1993, she graduated, with honors, from Western Oregon University where she earned her degree in Business. In the 18 years since, Karen has worked in Accounting, Auditing, Budgeting and related Management positions. She is passionate about doing the right thing and efficiencies. Her passions are flower gardening, spending time with family and friends and traveling.

Presenter: Tracy Wroblewski

Topic: Payroll Training (Open Enrollment, Timesheets and Furlough Days & Leave Accruals)

Tracy Wroblewski started state service in 1990 in the Oregon Dept of Transportation mailroom. In 1993 she moved to an administrative position within ODOT Financial Services. Between 1993 and 1999, Tracy promoted to a Payroll Technician, Accounting Technician and a Data Systems Technician within ODOT Financial Services while attending Linfield College and earning a BS in Accounting. Upon graduation in 1999, she became the Payroll Manager. As with most managers, she has since taken on additional units within ODOT Financial Services and now manages the Payroll, Payments and Administrative units.
